

BOARD ENGAGED IN SHARP DEBATE

Finally Decides to Give All Assurances Sought by Drainage Contractors.

ANXIOUS TO PUSH WORK

North Carolina Companies Are Off for Camp at Morehead.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Raleigh, N. C., July 8.—There was a sharp debate to-day in a meeting of the State Board of Education as to whether the board should give to the contractors for the installation of the drainage system for the Mattamuskeet Lake drainage district an additional and supplemental certificate that the State will at no time during the life of the contract attempt to rescind an agreement whereby it releases from mortgage a specified tract of 15,000 acres. This exemption was granted in order that the contractors could have the 15,000 acres on which to realize additional funds to carry through the drainage scheme. Colonel J. H. Han Grimes, Secretary of State, insisted that to call on the State board for such an additional certificate was really a reflection on the integrity of the State and the State officers. All the other members took the view that such a certificate would really do no harm, and that, if it would do any good in assuring the drainage, it should be done. It is expected that this drainage scheme will go forward now without further interruption.

Companies Off for Camp.

The movement of companies of the Second Regiment, North Carolina National Guard, to Morehead for annual encampment at Camp Glenn began to-night, and by to-morrow night the camp will be in full swing for eight days. The Third Regiment follows July 22, and the First Regiment August 5, each for eight days encampment. The Coast Artillery companies gather at Parris, Caswell August 5 for ten days' training. The rifle ranges tests during the encampments at Morehead will determine who will constitute the North Carolina team for the Camp Perry national shoot, to open August 25.

Commissions Issued.

Commissions have been issued to officers in the North Carolina National Guard by Adjutant-General Young as follows: J. I. Brown, Captain, Company B, Second Infantry; J. O. H. Taylor, Lieutenant, Company A, First Infantry; William A. Faulkner, second Lieutenant, Company E, Second Infantry; A. C. L. Hink, Captain, and quartermaster, Company E, Second Infantry; William A. Winston, Youngsville, captain and quartermaster, Third Infantry; William A. Winston, Youngsville, captain and quartermaster, Company E, Second Infantry; W. J. H. Hink, second Lieutenant, Company M, Second Infantry; C. D. Leane, Plymouth, Lieutenant, Junior grade, naval militia; V. E. Everett, Plymouth, Lieutenant in naval militia.

Judge H. G. Connor, of the Federal court, heard at considerable length to-day the case of Dr. W. C. Mudgett and F. Bloomer vs. J. H. Whitehouse, of New York, and issued judgment. The suit is to compel Whitehouse to convey to the plaintiffs 655 acres of land contracted for in Moore County for $5,000. The land is said to be worth probably $10,000.

United States District Attorney H. F. Seawell went to Lumberton to-day to appear for the State in the prosecution of a white man named Privatt for the killing of Emory McNeill, another white man. The trial will be a lengthy one, there being forty witnesses for the prosecution and ninety-eight for the defense.

Insurance Commissioner J. R. Young has canceled the license of the Atlantic Horse Insurance Company, of Providence, R. I., to do business in this State. This leaves two companies doing this class of business in North Carolina. It is only a limited amount of business in this State.

Charters Issued.

The Interstate company, of Greensboro, has been chartered for the establishment of a chain of department stores. The capital is $200,000 in $10 shares of preferred and common stock. The incorporators are L. J. Shaw, Carter Dalton and Fred Pack.

Another important charter is to the Caroline Bridge and Iron Company, Lexington, capital, $125,000 authorized, of which $10,000 is 8 percent preferred stock and $115,000 common stock. The incorporators are J. H. Hoffman, Burlington; G. F. Hankins and J. C. Bower, Lexington.

There is also a charter for the Catawba County Farmers' Union Warehouse Company, of Newton, capital, $25,000 authorized and $1,000 subscribed.

CHILD IS KILLED AT PLAY ON TRACK

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Milford, Va., July 8.—Clarence Madison, the two-year-old son of Mrs. Sadie Madison, was accidentally killed by a northbound train directly in front of his home, about one mile south of Milford. The child was believed to be asleep in the house, and had been only a few minutes out of sight of the family when it strayed to the railroad tracks. ## PORTER CHARLTON WILL BE DEPORTED

Supreme Court Affirms Decision That He Must Face Trial in Italy.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Trenton, N. J., July 8.—The United States Supreme Court returned to-day to Judge John Bell's affirmation of his decision in the Federal court here for the deportation of Porter Charlton. Charlton had been confined in the Hudson County Jail for two years. He was arrested on reaching America and charged with the killing of his wife at Lake Como, Italy, in 1910.

Upon receipt of the document Judge Bell made out an order to the sheriff of the county ordering that official to deliver and surrender the said Charlton to the Italian government, or to its duly accredited agents, in pursuance to an order heretofore issued by the Secretary of State of the United States.

It is likely Charlton will be surrendered to the Italian government tomorrow, to be taken to Italy to stand trial for murder.

TWO CANDIDATES ADDRESS WATERS

Samuel W. Williams and J. Thompson Brown at Charlotte Court.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Eureka Mills, Va., July 8.—The Circuit Court of Charlotte County was in session yesterday, Judge Hundley being sick, Judge J. F. West presided. During the recess of court, Attorney-General Samuel W. Williams addressed the voters in advocacy of his claims for re-election. He gave an account of his stewardship, stating that his successful conduct of the office of Attorney-General entitled him to the votes of the people. In closing Judge Williams appealed to his auditors to support him, because in all probability this will be the last opportunity they will have to vote for a Confederate soldier for Attorney-General.

J. Thompson Brown spoke at the courthouse to-day, and while the crowd was not large, he was given an enthusiastic reception.

At a meeting of the County Democratic Committee held yesterday, Hon. Berkeley D. Adams was declared the nominee of the party for re-election to the House of Delegates, he having no opposition.

S. J. Adams, as independent, will oppose him.

STORY OF TRAGIC SOCIAL FAILURE

Mrs. Schwab's Ball Called Off and Her Sponsor Is Discredited.

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.]

London, July 8.—Mrs. Henry C. Schwab, daughter of Nelson Morris, of Chicago, has recalled the invitations which she issued some time ago for a large ball which she planned to give to-night at Arlington House. The reason given for the withdrawal of the invitations was that Mrs. Schwab had suddenly been taken ill, and as yet no date can be set for the affair.

As a result of Mrs. Schwab's action London society to-night is busy gossiping over the real cause of the cancellation. Those who should be able to speak with authority declare she is not ill, but the real cause is that Mrs. Schwab has quarreled with her social sponsor, Mrs. Florence Williams. Mrs. Schwab has had a remarkable social year in London, and this ball was planned as grand coup d'état to her campaign for high social honors.

But behind the failure of Mrs. Schwab to give her ball this evening, lies a story of tragic social failure, a failure which English society gossips declare means the absolute withdrawal from London society of the woman who has acted as sponsor for Mrs. Schwab.

Mrs. Schwab has been besieged by a horde of women who are known here as social sponsors. As an outward evidence of material regard, Mrs. Schwab has had a number of gold badges, which have been set with valuable jewels, giving them a double value. Many women have besieged the American for the purpose of securing a badge, and she has remained under the guidance of Lady Paget and Mrs. Florence Williams, the latter being an English woman of considerable social ability who has pushed her almost to the very limit of the top rung of the social ladder by sheer determination. For various reasons her position has been regarded by all as being precarious, to say the least.

Upon the success achieved by her protégée, Mrs. Schwab, depended the ability of Mrs. Williams to hold her position. Therefore, when the invitation to the ball was sent out for the Schwab ball, the affair was at once dubbed "Florence's last gasp."

It was said to-night that Mrs. Schwab had broken the contract she had with Mrs. Williams, and despite the great effort the latter has made to induce her friends, especially among royalty, to attend, Mrs. Schwab has determined to get along without the energetic "Florence."

BABY COUGHS UP WASHER.

Fed Through Hole in the Metal for Three Months.
West Berwick, Pa., July 8.—After lodging in the throat of the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stimmel, of this place, for three months, causing the child excruciating pain, and seriously impairing his health, and nearly causing his death, a metal washer an inch and a quarter in diameter has been dislodged from its resting-place during the night.

The washer was badly corroded. Three months ago the child fell from a high chair, and since that time he had been in ill health. It is supposed that the washer became lodged in the throat during the fall. Since the fall all of the child's food has had to pass through the hole, the size of a lead pencil, in the neck of the washer.

FEAR SHOCK MAY KILL.

Girl Collapses After Watching Efforts to Revive Laid.
Trenton, July 8.—The efforts of physicians and Boy Scouts to revive Lincoln Spangler, at Bristol, were witnessed by Miss Rebecca Berger, of this city. To-day Miss Berger is in St. Francis Hospital in a nervous condition, and suffering from convulsions. Her death is expected.

Spangler dived in the river and struck his head. He was restored to consciousness, but died later. The girl, who was visiting relatives, witnessed the efforts to bring Spangler back to life, and the scene so affected her that her own life is now despaired of.

GOLF BALL ACID FATAL.

Boy Swallows Contents of Core and Dies as a Result.
Chicago, July 8.—A child, placed in the center of a golf ball to give it resiliency, was swallowed by Frank Wilbur Perry, twelve years old, with fatal results. The boy died of hemorrhage of the lungs.

Young Perry found an old golf ball Tuesday and cut it open. Inside he found a small sack which he placed in his mouth. The sack burst and acid ran down his throat.

SCHWAB'S CAR ROBBED.

$1,000 Worth of Silverware—Third in a Year.
South Bethlehem, Pa., July 8.—It became known here that Charles M. Schwab's private car, Loretto, had been robbed of silverware valued at $1,000.

The discovery was made on Mr. Schwab's return here from Europe last week, and when he was about to take the private car to Loretto, Pa., to spend Independence Day.

This is the third robbery that Mr. Schwab has undergone within a year. A wallet of his, containing $500, was stolen on a Pullman car en route to Pittsburgh. His house was robbed by a servant a month ago, and $300 was

Not Whether to Go to COLORADO But How to Get There!

That is the question. Everybody who can beg, borrow or steal the time for a vacation is going to Colorado this year.

Old Pike's Peak is flashing her wireless to every city and home. People are dreaming of camping tents in deep ravines and quaint summer homes on the mountainside. Men and women, young and old, are going by the thousands this year. And they all want to know the best way to get there. The best, surest and most comfortable route to Colorado is

Union Pacific

STANDARD ROAD OF THE WEST

—the road on which your vacation starts when the train starts—the road that makes Colorado an overnight trip and brings it within the reach of every home. Perhaps you have never thought of this before. Colorado has seemed to you so far away that only the fortunate people of leisure could go. Now the Union Pacific has brought it down to an overnight trip. And, such a trip! Such dinners! Such beds! Such open carriages, where you sit out-of-doors in the cool shade and Nature unrolls for you such a daylight and moonlight film as was never shown in any theatre!

This wonderful road is the only line to Colorado having the advantages of double tracks. Automatic Electric Block Safety Signals and dustless Sherman gravel all the way. On this route millions and millions of dollars have been spent for your luxury—this certainly is the only way to go.

FISHPOLE DRAWS LIGHTNING.

Bolt Kills One of Two Boys With Brass-Tipped Rod.
Pottsville, Pa., July 8.—A brass-tipped fishing-rod, carried by John Kopsch, caused his death in West Schuylkill by attracting lightning. The bolt struck the rod and killed him instantly, also seriously burning his companion, Edward Schuler, aged eight years. Kopsch was seventeen years old. The boys were returning home from a fishing trip, when they were overtaken by the storm, and the fishing-rod was entirely burned.

Atlantic City, July 8.—When James Morris, a plumber, appeared at the City Hall to procure a marriage license he was attired in overalls and "bumper," with a wrench protruding from one pocket and a screw-driver from another. "I came at the noon hour, so as not to lose any time," Morris informed amazed attaches of the Vital Statistics Bureau.

Fire in Kenbridge.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Kenbridge, Va., July 8.—The town of Kenbridge was visited last night by one of the worst fires it has ever had, when about $15,000 worth of property went up in smoke in a very few moments. The fire was discovered at 11 o'clock in a small icehouse adjoining two small stores occupied by negroes. These stores were soon in flames, and was communicated to the two storage and sales houses of Blackwell & Hatchett, wholesale grocers. Before the Blackwell & Hatchett building had fallen in the factory of the Farmers' Co-operative Grain Company was a mass of flames. This building was a three-story structure, and at a time the Virginia railway depot was in grave danger.

MAN MAKES ESCAPE, WOMAN IS KILLED

Angry Husband Stumbles and Shoots Wife Instead of Her Visitor.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Wilmington, N. C., July 8.—Suspecting his wife of infidelity and also of leading his young daughters astray, W. H. Hodges, a well-known white man and tugboat master, early this morning muffled the sound of his boat as it approached his home on the river, a few miles from Wilmington, and by this means surprised a man at his house. Incensed, he seized a shotgun and attempted to kill the intruder, but he stumbled and fell, the gun being discharged, and retribution in that way was meted out to the wife. The shot hit the woman in the stomach, killing her instantly.

The man, whose identity so far has not been discovered, ran away and made his escape. Hodges came to Wilmington, engaged a lawyer, and then went back home to be arrested.

Hodges told a pitiful tale, which is believed.

ANOTHER VICTIM CLAIMED BY POND

Eighteen-Year-Old Aylett Brown Is Drowned While Bathing With Friends.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Carterville, Va., July 8.—Aylett Brown, the eighteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Brown, was drowned Sunday while bathing with several friends in the pond of Philip's Millpond, and it is believed he got into quicksand and was drowned before aid could be given him. The body was recovered Sunday evening, and the services took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Besides his father and mother, the young man leaves several sisters and brothers, among them being Mrs. B. L. Brown, of this town; Mrs. Stennell, of Washington; Miss Pearl Brown, of this county, and Banks Brown and Howard Brown, of Richmond.

Drowned in Smith River.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Martinsville, Va., July 8.—Claude S. Fry, a young man about nineteen years old, was drowned while bathing in Smith River, near Roanoke, late yesterday afternoon. Fry went in with a companion named Wells. He got into water twelve feet deep and, not being an expert swimmer, drowned before help could reach him. Mr. Brandt, station agent, recovered the body after it had been in the water thirty-five minutes. Life was extinct before the body was taken from the river. The young man was a son of David M. Fry, a prominent citizen and farmer of the Spencer neighborhood. He is survived by both parents and several brothers and sisters.

YOUNG AUTOMOBILISTS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Norfolk, Va., July 8.—Bruceton Lowenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lowenberg, and Elmer Leterman, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Leterman, had a narrow escape from death in a bad automobile accident on the Ocean View Boulevard last night.

Young Lowenberg and Leterman had been to Ocean View together in the former's auto and were returning to the city when the machine ran into a telegraph pole. The pole was cut completely off and the machine badly damaged.

Young Leterman had his arm broken and young Lowenberg had his hip slightly cut. It was miraculous that both boys were not killed.

The accident, it is said, occurred as young Lowenberg, who was driving the machine, attempted to turn out of the way of another auto that was trying to pass at the time.

Both boys were brought to their homes. Young Leterman is now at the apartments of his parents in the "Chifford."
